2.1 Explain the working culture of the film industry

What is it like in the film industry? (Consider hours, travel, freelance, working on set and budget. What are the pressures? What are the positives and negatives?)	• Taking multiple shots can be time consuming → long hours which are unpredictable • Budgets can affect time on set, props, cameras used, set / locations (overall control of shots), • communication is very important • positives = get to make a film • negatives = can be stressful, especially with time constraints.
What qualities do you need to work in the film industry? (E.g. Showing initiative, taking responsibility, good time management, knowing your specialism, having good communication skills) Give reasons for your answers.	• reliability → need to be on time and trusted to complete tasks set • good communication skills → everyone needs to understand what ~~the~~ they are trying to achieve = results in ~~good~~ good teamwork • Knowing your own and other people's specialisms → make the most of everyones specific skills (someone who specialises in the camera department may have better ideas about shots). • taking responsibility → own up to any mistakes and take responsibility ~~for~~ for any equipment. ~~You are testing~~ → errors can be corrected early on.
